

Postgraduate Open Day – Wednesday 13 November 2019

Time	Activity	Venue
9.30-12.15	University-wide activities and talks – see https://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/postgraduate/open-days-events-visits/open-days/programme
12.15	Walk from McEwan Hall to New College	Start from McEwan Hall
12.30 – 12.35	Welcome from the Head of School (Prof. Helen Bond), the Director of Postgraduate Studies (Prof. Emma Wild-Wood), and the Director of Taught Masters Programmes (Dr Sara Parvis).	Rainy Hall, New College
12.35 – 13.15	Sandwich lunch with Divinity staff and current PG students. There will be an opportunity to meet individually over lunch with Masters Programme Directors and prospective PhD supervisors. Please contact Dr Parvis S.Parvis@ed.ac.uk in advance if there is a potential supervisor whom you would like to talk to in particular.	Rainy Hall, New College
13.15 – 14.00	Programme presentations and Q&A, with the Director of Postgraduate Studies, the Director of Taught Postgraduate Programmes and individual Programme Directors. The presentations will cover the School's research degrees (Masters by Research, MPhil, PhD), and the School's six taught Masters programmes: MSc/MTh in Biblical Studies, MSc in Islam and Christian-Muslim Relations, MSc in Religious Studies, MSc in Science and Religion, MSc/MTh in Theology in History, MSc/MTh in World Christianity.	Martin Hall, New College
14.00 – 14.30	Presentation on postgraduate student life in the School of Divinity, led by current students, with time for questions and answers.	Martin Hall, New College
14.30 – 15.00	Student-led tour of the School of Divinity (New College), including postgraduate study facilities.	Start from Martin Hall, New College